But when I hit convert button nothing happens. Also, when I hit the Support button... Help is not available for CADTools'll be seeking a refund. Hello, sorry for this problem, you can leave a message on our website or send an email to our email address. Can you send the .dwg file to our email address(moonlight_beauty@yeah.net)? This will help us solve this problem. Thank you so much for your feedback. Last, awesome, viewing dwg and converting to pdf are all perfect, however, the prompt window for purchase does not show all the prompt text, my system is 10.9, it doesn't matter, the viewing and conversion are good, and easy to use I paid for the 2D feature and tells me it's not but my credit card was charged. I need an email or phone number to communicate with someone because the website will not send you off my message Hello, if the purchase is successful, please restore your purchase, the purchase information will be saved in your APPLE ID account, if you still have questions, please contact us by email ( moonlight_beauty@yeah.net ) Developer Developer App Support Privacy Policy
